5. AUTHORITY TO INSTITUTE DISCIPLINARY PROCEEDING AND IMPOSE PENALTIES

5. (1) The Managing Director or any other authority empowered by him by general or special order may institute or direct the Disciplinary Authority to institute disciplinary proceedings against an officer employee of the bank.
(2) The disciplinary authority may himself institute disciplinary proceedings.

(3) The disciplinary authority or any authority higher than it, may impose any of the penalties specified in regulation 4 on any officer employee.

6. PROCEDURE FOR IMPOSING MAJOR PENALTIES

1. No order imposing any of the major penalties specified in clauses (f), (g), (h), (i) and (j), of regulation 4 shall be made except after an enquiry is held in accordance with this Regulation.

2. Whenever the Disciplinary Authority is of the opinion that there are grounds for inquiring into the truth of any imputation of misconduct or misbehavior against an officer employee, it may itself enquire into, or appoint any other person who is, or has been a public servant (hereinafter referred to as the inquiring authority) to inquire into the truth thereof.

   Explanation: When the Disciplinary Authority itself holds the inquiry any reference in sub-regulation (8) to sub regulation (21) to the inquiring authority shall be construed as reference to Disciplinary Authority.

3. Where it is proposed to hold an inquiry, the Disciplinary Authority shall, frame definite and distinct charges on the basis of the allegations against the officer employee and the articles of charge, together with a Statement of the allegations, list of documents relied on along with copy of such documents and list of witnesses along with copy of Statement of witnesses, if any, on which they are based, shall be communicated in writing to the officer employee, who shall be required to submit, within such time as may be specified by the Disciplinary Authority (not exceeding 15 days), or within such extended time as may be granted by the said Authority, a written statement of his defence.

   "Provided that wherever it is not possible to furnish the copies of documents, disciplinary authority shall allow the officer employee inspection of such documents within a time specified in this behalf"

4. On receipt of the written statement of the officer employee, or if no such statement is received within the time specified, an enquiry may be held by the Disciplinary Authority itself, or if it considers it necessary so to do appoint under sub-regulation (2) an Inquiring Authority for the purpose. Provided that it may not be necessary to hold an inquiry in respect of the articles of charge admitted by the officer employee in his written statement but shall be necessary to record findings on each such charge.

5. The Disciplinary Authority shall, where it is not the inquiring authority, forward to the inquiring authority:

   (i) a copy of the articles of charges and statements of imputations of misconduct or misbehaviour;

   (ii) a copy of the written statement of defence, if any, submitted by the officer employee;
(iii) a list of documents by which and list of witnesses by whom the articles of charge are proposed to be substantiated;
(iv) a copy of statements of the witnesses, if any.
(v) evidence proving the delivery of articles of charge under sub-regulation (3);
(vi) a copy of the order appointing the ‘presenting officer’ in terms of sub-regulation (6).

6. Where the Disciplinary Authority itself inquires or appoints an Inquiring authority for holding an inquiry, it may, by an order, appoint a public servant to be known as the “Presenting Officer” to present on its behalf the case in support of the articles of charge.

7. The officer employee may take the assistance of any other officer employee but may not engage a legal practitioner for the purpose, unless the Presenting Officer appointed by the Disciplinary Authority is a legal practitioner, or the Disciplinary Authority having regard to the circumstances of the case, so permits. The Officer employee shall not take the assistance of any other officer employee who has two pending disciplinary cases on hand, in which he has to give assistance.

8.(a) The inquiring Authority shall by notice in writing specify the day on which the officer employee shall appear in person before the inquiring authority.
(b) On the date fixed by the Inquiring Authority, the officer employee shall appear before the Inquiring Authority at the time, place and date specified in the notice.
(c) The Inquiring Authority shall ask the officer employee whether he pleads guilty or has any defence to make and if he pleads guilty to any the articles of charge, the Inquiring Authority shall record the plea, sign the record and obtain the signature of the officer employee concerned thereon.
(d) The inquiring Authority shall record a finding of guilt in respect of those articles of charge to which the officer employee concerned pleads guilty.

9. If the officer employee does not plead guilty, the inquiring Authority shall adjourn the case to a later date not exceeding 30 days or within such extended time as may be granted by the Inquiring Authority

10. The Inquiring Authority while adjourning the case as in sub-regulation (9), shall also record by an order that the officer employee may for the purpose of preparing defence-
(i) Complete inspection of the documents as in the list furnished to him immediately and in any case not exceeding 5 days from the date of such order if he had not done so earlier as provided for in the proviso to sub-regulation (3)
(ii) submit a list of documents and witnesses that he wants for the inquiry.
(ii) give a notice within ten days of the order or within such further time not exceeding ten days as the Inquiring Authority may allow for the discovery or production of the documents referred to in item (ii)

NOTE: The relevancy of the documents and the examination of the witnesses referred to in item (ii) shall be given by the officer employee concerned.

11. The Inquiring Authority shall, on receipt of the notice for the discovery or production of the documents, forward the same or copies thereof to the authority in whose custody or possession the documents are kept with a requisition for the production of the documents on such date as may be specified.

12. On the receipt of the requisition under sub-regulation (11), the authority having the custody or possession of requisitioned documents, shall arrange to produce the same before the inquiring Authority on the date, place and time specified in the requisition:

Provided that the authority having the custody or possession of the requisitioned documents may claim privilege if the production of such documents will be against the public interest or the interest of the Bank. In that event, it shall inform the Inquiring Authority accordingly.

13. On the date fixed for the inquiry, the oral and documentary evidence by which the articles of charge are proposed to be proved shall be produced by or on behalf of the Disciplinary Authority. The witnesses produced by the Presenting Officer shall be examined by the presenting Officer and may be cross-examined by or on behalf of the officer employee. The Presenting Officer shall be entitled to re-examine his witnesses on any points on which they have been cross-examined, but not on a new matter, without the leave of the inquiring Authority. The inquiring Authority may also put such questions to the witnesses, as it thinks fit.

14. Before the close of the case, in support of the charges, the Inquiring Authority may, in its discretion, allow the Presenting Officer to produce evidence not included in the charge sheet or may itself call for new evidence or recall or re-examine any witness. In such case the officer employee shall be given opportunity to inspect the documentary evidence before it is taken on record, or to cross-examine a witness, who has been so summoned. The Inquiring Authority may also allow the officer employee to produce new evidence, if it is of opinion that the production of such evidence is necessary in the interests of justice.

15. When the case in support of the charges is closed, the officer employee may be required to state his defence, orally or in writing, as he may prefer. If the defence is made orally, it shall be recorded and the officer employee shall be required to sign the record. In either case a copy of the statement of defence shall be given to the Presenting Officer, if any, appointed.

16. The evidence on behalf of the officer employee shall then be produced. The officer employee may examine himself in his own behalf, if he so prefers, the witnesses produced by the officer employee shall then be examined by the officer employee and may be cross-examined by the Presenting Officer. The officer employee shall be entitled to re-examine any of his witnesses on any points on which they have been cross-examined, but not on any new matter without the leave of the Inquiring Authority.

17. The Inquiring Authority may after the officer employee closes his evidence, and shall, if the officer employee has not got himself examined, generally question him on the circumstances appearing against him in the evidence for the purpose of enabling the officer employee to explain any circumstances appearing in the evidence against him.

18. The Inquiring Authority may, after the completion of the production of evidence, hear the Presenting Officer, if any, appointed and the officer employee or permit them to file, written briefs of their respective case within -15- days of the date of completion of the production of evidence, if they so desire.

19. If the officer employee does not submit the written statement of defence referred to in sub-regulation (3) on or before the date specified for the purpose or does not appear in person, or through the assisting officer or otherwise fails or refuses to comply with any of the provisions of these regulations, the Inquiring Authority may hold the inquiry ex-partite.

20. Whenever any Inquiring Authority, after having heard and recorded the whole or any part of the evidence in an inquiry ceases to exercise jurisdiction therein, and is succeeded by another Inquiring Authority which has, and which exercises, such jurisdiction, the Inquiring Authority so succeeding may act on the evidence so recorded by its predecessor, or partly recorded by its predecessor and partly recorded by itself:
Provided that if the succeeding Inquiring Authority is of the opinion that further examination of any of the witnesses whose evidence has already been recorded is necessary in the interests of justice, it may recall, examine, cross examine and re-examine any such witnesses as herein before provided.

21. (i) On the conclusion of the inquiry the Inquiring Authority shall prepare a report which shall contain the following:
(a) a gist of the articles of charge and the statement of the imputations of misconduct or misbehavior;
(b) a gist of the defence of the officer employee in respect of each article of charge;
(c) an assessment of the evidence in respect of each article of charge;
(d) the findings on each article of charge and the reasons there for.

Explanation: If, in the opinion of the Inquiring Authority, the proceedings of the inquiry establish any article of charge different from the original article of charge it may record its findings on such article of charge:
Provided that the findings on such article of charge shall not be recorded unless the officer employee has either admitted the facts on which such article of charge is based or has had a reasonable opportunity of defending himself against such article of charge.

(ii) The Inquiring Authority, where it is not itself the Disciplinary Authority, shall forward to the Disciplinary Authority the records of inquiry which shall include-

(a) the report of the inquiry prepared by it under clause (i);
(b) the written statement of defence, if any, submitted by the officer employee referred to in sub-regulation (15);
(c) the oral and documentary evidence produced in the course of the inquiry;
(d) written briefs referred to in sub-regulation (18), if any; and
(e) the orders, if any, made by the Disciplinary Authority and the Inquiring Authority in regard to the inquiry.

7. ACTION ON THE INQUIRY REPORT

1. The Disciplinary Authority, if it is not itself the inquiring authority may, for reasons to be recorded by it in writing, remit the case to the Inquiring Authority for fresh or further inquiry and report and the Inquiring Authority shall thereupon proceed to hold the further inquiry according to the provisions of regulation 6 as far as may be.

2. The Disciplinary Authority, shall if it disagrees with the findings of the Inquiring Authority on any article of charge, record its reasons for such disagreement and record its own findings on such charge, if the evidence on record is sufficient for the purpose.

3. If the Disciplinary Authority, having regard to its findings on all or any of the articles of charge, is of the opinion that any of the penalties specified in regulation 4 should be imposed on the officer employee it shall, notwithstanding anything contained in regulation 8, make an order imposing such penalty.

4. If the Disciplinary Authority having regard to its findings on all or any of the articles of charge, is of the opinion that no penalty is called for, it may pass an order exonerating the officer employee concerned.

8. PROCEDURE FOR IMPOSING MINOR PENALTIES

1. Where it is proposed to impose any of the minor penalties specified in clauses (a) to (e) of regulation 4, the officer employee concerned shall be informed in writing of the imputations of Lapses against him and given an opportunity to submit his written statement of defence within a specified period not exceeding 15 days or such extended period as may be granted by the Disciplinary Authority and the defence statement, if any, submitted by the officer employee shall be taken into consideration by the Disciplinary Authority before passing orders.
2. Where, however, the Disciplinary Authority is satisfied that an enquiry is necessary, it shall follow the procedure for imposing a major penalty as laid down in regulation 6.

3. The record of the proceedings in such cases shall include—
   I. a copy of the statement of imputations of lapses furnished to the officer employee;
   II. the defence statement, if any, of the officer employee; and
   III. the orders of the Disciplinary Authority together with the reasons therefor.

9. COMMUNICATION OF ORDER

Orders made by the Disciplinary Authority under regulation 7 or regulation 8 shall be communicated to the officer employee concerned, who shall also be supplied with a copy of the report of inquiry, if any.

10. COMMON PROCEEDINGS

Where two or more officer employees are concerned in a case, the authority competent to impose a major penalty on all such officer employees may make an order directing that disciplinary proceedings against all of them may be taken in a common proceeding.

11. SPECIAL PROCEDURE IN CERTAIN CASES

Notwithstanding anything contained in regulation 6 or in regulation 7 or in regulation 8 the Disciplinary Authority may impose any of the penalties specified in regulation 4 if the officer employee has been convicted on a criminal charge, or on the strength of facts or conclusions arrived at by a judicial trial.

Provided that the Officer Employee may be given an opportunity of making representation on the penalty proposed to be imposed before any order is made.
12. SUSPENSION

(1) An officer employee may be placed under suspension by the competent authority-
   (a) Where a disciplinary proceeding against him is contemplated or is pending; or
   (b) Where a case against him in respect of any criminal offence is under investigation, inquiry or trial.

(2) An officer employee shall be deemed to have been placed under suspension by an order of the competent authority-
   (a) with effect from the date of his detention, if he is detained in custody, whether on a criminal charge or otherwise, for a period exceeding forty-eight hours;
   (b) with effect from the date of conviction, if in the event of a conviction for an offence, he is sentenced to a term of imprisonment exceeding forty-eight hours and is not forthwith dismissed or removed or compulsorily retired consequent to such conviction.

   Explanation: The period of forty-eight hours referred to in clause (b) of this sub-regulation shall be computed from the commencement of the imprisonment after the conviction and for this purpose, intermittent period of imprisonment, if any, shall be taken into account.

   CLARIFICATION: It shall be the duty of the officer concerned who may have been arrested/ detained for any reason, to intimate the fact of his arrest/ detention and the circumstances connected thereto, to his immediate superiors/branch manager/head of the department/office promptly, even though he might have been subsequently released on bail or otherwise. Failure on the part of the officer employee to so inform his superiors, will be regarded as suppression of material information, and may render him liable to disciplinary action on this ground alone, apart from the action that may be called for. (REF: CO: BR: 92: 81 DATED 13.06.2000)

(3) Where a penalty of dismissal, removal or compulsory retirement from service imposed upon an officer employee under suspension is set aside in appeal or on review under these regulations and the case is remitted for further inquiry or action or with any direction, the order of his suspension shall be deemed to have continued in force on and from the date of the original order of dismissal, removal or compulsory retirement and shall remain in force until further orders.

(4) Where a penalty of dismissal, removal or compulsory retirement from service imposed upon an officer employee under suspension is set aside or declared or rendered void in consequence of or by a decision of a court of law, and the Disciplinary Authority, on consideration of the circumstances of the case, decides to hold further inquiry against him on the allegations on which the penalty of dismissal, removal or compulsory retirement was originally imposed, the officer employee shall be deemed to have been placed under suspension by the competent authority from the date of the original order of dismissal, removal or compulsory retirement and shall continue to remain under suspension until further orders.

(5)  (a) An order of suspension made or deemed to have been made under this regulation shall continue to remain in force until it is modified or revoked by the authority competent to do so.

(b) An order of suspension made or deemed to have been made under this regulation may at any time be modified or revoked by the authority, which made or is deemed to have made the order.

13. LEAVE DURING SUSPENSION

13. No leave shall be granted to an officer employee under suspension.

14. SUBSISTENCE ALLOWANCE DURING SUSPENSION

(1) An officer employee who is placed under suspension shall, during the period of such suspension and subject to sub-regulation (2) to (4) be entitled to receive payment from the bank by way of subsistence allowance on the following scale, namely: -

a)  Basic pay:

I.  For the first three months of suspension 1/3rd of the basic pay which the officer employee was receiving on the date prior to the date of suspension irrespective of the nature of enquiry.

II. For the subsequent period after 3 months from the date of suspension -

a.  where the enquiry is held departmentally by the bank, 1/2 of the basic pay, the officer employee was drawing on the date prior to the date of suspension.

b.  Where the enquiry is held by an outside agency, 1/3 of the basic pay which the officer employee was drawing on the date prior to the date of suspension for the next three months and 1/2 of the basic pay which the officer employee was drawing on the date prior to the date of suspension for the remaining period of suspension.

(b)  Allowances:

1. For the entire period of suspension, dearness allowance and other allowances excepting conveyance allowance, entertainment allowance and special allowance will be calculated on the reduced pay as specified in items (i) and (ii) of clause (a) and at the prevailing rates or at rates applicable to similar category of officers.

2. During the period of suspension an officer employee shall not be entitled to occupation of a rent-free house or free use of the bank's car or receipt of conveyance or entertainment allowance or special allowance.

3. No officer employee of the bank shall be entitled to receive payment of subsistence allowance unless he furnishes a certificate that he is not engaged in any other employment, business, profession or vocation.

4. If, during the period of suspension an officer employee retires by reason of his attaining the age of superannuation, no subsistence allowances shall be paid to him from the date of his retirement.

15. PAY, ALLOWANCE AND TREATMENT OF SERVICE ON TERMINATION OF SUSPENSION

(1) Where the competent authority holds that the officer employee has been fully exonerated or that the suspension was unjustifiable, the officer employee concerned shall be granted the full pay to which he would have been entitled, had he not been suspended, together with any allowance of which he was in receipt immediately prior to his suspension, or may have been sanctioned subsequently and made applicable to all officer employees.

(2) In all cases other than those referred to in sub-regulation (1), the officer employee shall be granted such proportion of pay and allowances as the Competent Authority may direct:

Provided that the payment of allowances under this sub-regulation shall be subject to all other conditions to which such are admissible allowances

Provided further that the pay and allowances granted under this sub-regulation shall not be less than the subsistence and other allowances admissible under regulation 14.

(3) (a) In a case falling under sub-regulation (1), the period of absence from duty shall, for all purposes, be treated as a period spent on duty;

(b) In a case falling under sub-regulation (2) the period of absence from duty shall not be treated as a period spent on duty unless the Competent Authority specifically directs, for reasons to be recorded in writing, that it shall be so treated for any specific purpose.
16. EMPLOYEES ON DEPUTATION FROM THE CENTRAL GOVERNMENT, STATE GOVERNMENT, ETC.

(1) Where an order of suspension is made or disciplinary proceeding is taken against an officer employee, who is on deputation to the bank from the Central Government or the State Government, or Reserve Bank of India or another public sector bank or banking company etc. or a public financial institution or an institution wholly or substantially owned by the Reserve Bank of India or a public financial institution or public undertaking, or a local authority, the Authority Lending his services (hereinafter referred to as the “Lending Authority”) shall forthwith be informed of the circumstances leading to the order of his suspension, or the commencement of the disciplinary proceedings, as the case may be.

(2) In the light of the findings in the disciplinary proceedings taken against the officer employee-

(a) if the Disciplinary Authority is of the opinion that any of the minor penalties should be imposed on him it may pass such orders on the case, as it deems necessary after consultation with the Lending Authority:

Provided that in the event of a difference of opinion between the Disciplinary Authority and the Lending Authority, the services of the employee shall be placed at the disposal of the Lending Authority.

(b) if the Disciplinary Authority is of the opinion that any of the major penalties should be imposed on him it should replace his services at the disposal of the Lending Authority and transmit to it the proceedings of the enquiry for such action as it deems necessary.

(3) If the officer employee submits an appeal against an order imposing a minor penalty on him under clause (a) of sub-regulation (2), it will be disposed of after consultation with the Lending Authority:

Provided that if there is a difference of opinion between the Appellate Authority and the Lending Authority, the services of the officer employee shall be placed at the disposal of the Lending Authority, and the proceeding of the case shall be transmitted to that authority for such action as it deems necessary.
17. APPEAL

(1) An officer employee may prefer an appeal to the Appellate Authority within 45 days from the date of receipt of the order imposing upon him any of the penalties specified in Regulation 4 or against the order of suspension referred to in regulation 12.

Provided that the Appellate authority may entertain the appeal after expiry of the said period, if it is satisfied that the applicant has sufficient cause for not preferring appeal in time.

(1) An appeal shall be presented to the Appellate Authority with a copy being forwarded by the appellant to the authority which made the order appealed against. It shall contain all material statements and arguments on which the appellant relies but shall not contain any disrespectful or improper language, and shall be complete in itself.

(2) The authority which made the order appealed against shall on receipt of a copy of the appeal from the appellant, forward the same with its comments thereon together with the relevant records to the Appellate Authority within a period not exceeding forty five days from the date of receipt of the appeal.

(3) The Appellate authority shall on receipt of the comments and records of the case from the authority whose order is appealed against, consider whether the order of suspension/findings are justified or whether penalty is excessive or inadequate and pass appropriate orders. The Appellate authority may pass an order confirming, enhancing, reducing or setting aside the penalty/suspension or remitting the case to the authority which imposed the penalty or to any other authority which imposed the penalty or to any other authority with such directions as it may deem fit in the circumstances of the case.

Provided that:

(i) If the enhanced penalty which the Appellate Authority proposed to impose is a major penalty specified in clauses (f), (g), (h), (i), and (j) of regulation 4 and an inquiry as provided in regulation 6 has not already been held in the case, the Appellate Authority shall direct that such an enquiry be held in accordance with the provisions of regulation 6 and thereafter consider the record of the inquiry and pass such orders as it may deem proper:

(ii) if the Appellate Authority decides to enhance the punishment but an enquiry has already been held as provided in regulation 6, the Appellate Authority shall give a show-cause notice to the officer employee as to why the enhanced penalty should not be imposed upon him and shall pass final order after taking into account the representation, if any, submitted by the officer employee.

(5) The Appellate authority shall dispose of the appeal within a period of ninety days from the date of its receipt from the appellant:

Provided that the time limit specified in this regulation shall not apply to cases having a vigilance angle and where major/minor penalty proceedings against the officer employee have commenced on recommendations of the Police or Central Bureau of Investigation or Central Vigilance Commission, as the case may be, investigating the matter.

(6) The cases lying pending over ninety days shall be reviewed periodically by the Appellate authority and reasons for non-disposal of the cases shall be recorded in writing.

18. REVIEW

Notwithstanding anything contained in these regulations, the Reviewing Authority may at any time within six months of the date of the final order, either on his own motion or otherwise review the said order, when any new material or evidence which could not be produced or was not available at the time of passing the order under review and which has the effect of changing the nature of the case, has come or has been brought to his notice and pass such orders thereon as it may deem fit.

Provided that -

(i) If any enhanced penalty, which the Reviewing Authority proposes to impose, is a major penalty specified in clauses (f), (g), (h), (i), or (j) of regulation 4 and an enquiry as provided under regulation 6 has not already been held in the case, the Reviewing Authority shall direct that such an enquiry be held in accordance with the provisions of regulation 6 and thereafter consider the record of the enquiry and pass such orders as it may deem proper.

(ii) If the Reviewing Authority decides to enhance the punishment but an enquiry has already been held in accordance with the provisions of regulation 6, the Reviewing Authority shall give show cause notice to the officer employee as to why the enhanced penalty should not be imposed upon him and shall pass an order after taking into account the representation, if any, submitted by the officer employee.

19. CENTRAL VIGILANCE COMMISSION- CONSULTATION

The Bank shall consult the Central Vigilance Commission wherever necessary, in respect of all disciplinary cases having a vigilance angle.
20. SERVICE OF ORDERS, NOTICES, ETC.

Every order, notice and other process made or issued under these regulations shall be served in person on the officer employee concerned or communicated to him by registered post at his last known address.

21. POWER TO RELAX TIME LIMIT AND TO CONDONE DELAY

Save as otherwise expressly provided in these regulations, the authority competent under these regulations to make any order may, for good and sufficient reasons or if sufficient cause is shown, extend the time specified in these regulations for anything required to be done under these regulations or condone any delay.

22. REPEAL AND SAVING

(1) Every rule, regulation, bye-law or every provision in any agreement or a resolution corresponding to any of the regulations herein contained and in force immediately before the commencement of these regulations and applicable to the officer employee is hereby repealed.

(2) Notwithstanding such repeal-

(a) any order made or action taken under the provisions so repealed shall be deemed to have been made or taken under the corresponding provisions of these regulations:

(b) nothing in these regulations shall be construed as depriving any person to whom these regulations apply, of any right of appeal, which had accrued to him under any of the provisions so repealed;

(c) an appeal pending at the commencement of these regulations against an order made before the commencement of these regulations shall be considered and orders thereon shall be made, in accordance with these regulations;

(d) any proceedings which have already been initiated but not yet been completed at the commencement of these regulations shall be continued and disposed as far as may be, in accordance with the provisions of these regulations, as if such proceedings were proceedings under these regulations.
